NATIONAL YOUNG LEADERS SUMMIT: PROGRAM
March 9 and 10, 2018 | CNIB Community Hub, 1525 Yonge St, Toronto, ON M4T 1Z2
Co-Chairs: Shaini Saravanamuthu and Jack McCormick

Background

Launched in 2015 by the Foundation Fighting Blindness, the National Young Leaders Program provides mentorship and resources to young people aged 17-30 affected by vision loss, empowering them to become leaders in their communities. The Summit is the Program's premier event, an opportunity for youth across Canada with vision impairments to meet face-to-face to build relationships, experience mentorship, establish networks, and develop leadership skills. The event's programming is directed by members of the Young Leader community who take the role of Chair or Co-Chairs, with support provided by staff at the Foundation Fighting Blindness.

Primary Objective

The overarching objective of the Summit is to enable attendees to become Young Leaders, individuals who can mentor others and bring knowledge and resources back to their own communities. Young people living with vision impairments are underserved in Canada, often left on their own to face the same challenges as those who are fully sighted; the community established by the network of Young Leaders—a community that will grow as they influence and mentor others—is intended to fill this gap. Learning objectives and outcomes relate to this central goal and are summarized below.

2018 Summit

The theme for the Summit in March of 2018 will be "finding a rewarding career." We know that young people will steer the future of Canada and the world. But we also know that they are underserved, overburdened by debt, and challenged by an uncertain and highly competitive job market. Programming in 2018 is designed to help attendees navigate the complexities of finding a career in this turbulent and precarious landscape, with opportunities to interact with industry leaders and sessions focussed on the development of concrete skills. Insights gained during the Summit will be summarized by participants in a post-event survey; attendees are also asked to offer mentorship to 2 additional youth within a 4-month period, and to contribute to the development of an online Hub—rolled-out over the course of 2018 and hosted on the FFB's website—that will collect stories and resources emerging from the Summit.
